

Register on September 28, 1998 (63 FR 51605).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the State shows that some workers of Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc. were leased from Kelly Services, Inc. to produce intravenous specialty catheters at the Menlo Park, California plant. Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include leased workers from Kelly Services, Inc., Menlo Park, California.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc. adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,749 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc., Menlo Park, California engaged in the production of intravenous specialty catheters and leased workers of Kelly Services, Inc., Menlo Park, California engaged in employment related to the production of intravenous specialty catheters for Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc., Menlo Park, California who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 24, 1997 through August 31, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Dated: July 22, 1999.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 19th day of July, 1999.

Grant D. Beale,

Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Martin Marietta Magnesia specialties Inc. Manistee, MI; Revised Determination on Reopening

By letter of June 18 the company official presented evidence not previously considered in the Department's determination. Accordingly, the Department reopened the petition investigation applicable to workers of the subject firm.

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination issued on April 20, 1999, based on the finding that during the time period relevant to the petition investigation, customers of Martin Marietta Magnesia Specialties, Inc. did not increase reliance on imports of articles like or directly competitive with refractory products produced at the Manistee, Michigan plant. Layoffs were attributable to the decline in demand for refractory products from the steel industry. The denial notice was published in the Federal Register on May 11, 1999 (64 FR 25371).

On reopening, further analysis was conducted regarding purchases of refractory products by the subject firm's major declining customers. New findings show that from 1997 to 1998 a major declining customer increased import purchases of refractory products while decreasing purchases from the Manistee, Michigan plant.

Sales, production and employment declined during the relevant period.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reopening, I conclude that increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with refractory products contributed importantly to the declines in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers of Martin Marietta Magnesia Specialties Inc., Michigan. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Martin Marietta Magnesia Specialties Inc., Manistee, Michigan, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 9, 1998, through two years from the date of this certification are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Dated: July 22, 1999.

Signed in Washington, D.C., this 20th day of July 1999.

The O.S. Kelly Company; Springfield, Ohio and Jonesboro, Arkansas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on May 25, 1999, applicable to workers of the O.S. Kelly Company, Springfield, Ohio. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 30, 1999 (64 FR 35184).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that worker separation occurred at the subject firm's Jonesboro, Arkansas facility when it closed in June, 1999. The workers were engaged in employment related to the production of piano plates. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers of The O.S. Kelly Company, Jonesboro, Arkansas.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of The O.S. Kelly Company adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,909 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of The O.S. Kelly Company, Springfield, Ohio (TA-W-35,909) and Jonesboro, Arkansas (TA-W-35,909A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 26, 1998 through March 25, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 21st day of July, 1999.
